

Crashed Out

Beach Fossils

Said I would to bring you back
But I won't take you anywhere
I find it hard not to act
When everything's up in the air

I walk with you across New York
We're on the bridge above the cars
We talk about how nice it is
That the city won't care who you are