Beach House

There she goes
Under the sun
Some question there

Roll her eyes Blonde, your hair Fake eyelashes

Sun came up Baby went black And she rolled over

There she goes Around the bend The sun is slow Unknown friend

There she goes
The sun went bad
The cycle ends

Who takes your name back
When he said he's four streets from your bed
And I'm loving and sick

There she goes
On her bike
Earth to the side

When you're loving most at night And I love you back
When the sun rises, I-Who will call you back?

It's a whisper
It's just a whisper
It's just a whisper
