We Fall Apart

Bebo Norman

Today is not a good day Stranded in the heartache Watching all the world race And pass me by

Like a wave on the ocean

Comes a flood of emotion

And it can't go unspoken

No it can't go unspoken one more time

We fall apart just to come alive A broken heart can shatter all the lies A brand new start and a goodbye We fall apart just to come alive

Yeah but this is still a good life Standing in the sunlight Scattering the long line Of fear and shame

Cause underneath the surface
There's a heart and a purpose
And I swear that it's worth it
Yeah I swear that it's worth it, it's not in vain

You save me, You save me I'm alive, I'm alive Cause you save me
