On a highway unpaved, goin' my way You're so alone today Like a ghost town I've found There's no relief, no soul, no mercy

Is it true what they say You can't behave You gamble your soul away

Measuring a jinx of this life seems Like the gristle of loneliness

Don't let the sun catch you cryin' Don't let the sun catch you cryin'

Like an ice age, nice days on your way Sipping the golden days on a riptide Freak's ride, sleep inside A parasite's appetite

Oh, say can't you see the chemistry The parasites that clean up for me? Death never hails, recycled cans Get well cards to the hostage vans

Don't let the sun catch you cryin' Don't let the sun catch you cryin'

You're a deadweight, right straight On your way, sunk in the midnight shade Skies burn, eyes turn Learning to counterfeit their disease

In this town where we roam We bluff our souls
On canteen patio
Drink the latest draft

The music drags The music drags The music drags

Don't let the sun catch you cryin' Don't let the sun catch you cryin
