Just like a paper tiger
Torn apart by idle hands
Through the halter skelter morning
Fix yourself while you still can

No more ashes to ashes No more cinders from the sky And all the laws of creation Tell a dead man how to die

O deserts down below us And storms up above Like a stray dog gone defective Like a paper tiger in the sun

Looking through a broken diamond To make the past what it should be Through the ruins and the weather Capsized boats in the sea

O deserts down below us And storms up above Like a stray dog gone defective Like a paper tiger in the sun

We're just holding on to nothing To see how long nothing lasts

O deserts down below us And storms up above Like a stray dog gone defective Like a paper tiger in the sun

There is one word to the morning
There is one word to the truth
There is one word back to civilization
Well there is no word back to you
