

Too Much Water

Belinda Carlisle

Dreams in the night
Dreams overflow
Building bridges to each other
Hearts make the waters flow

Sunlight and diamonds
Reflecting hope
Making journeys to each other
Going where lovers go

You were sleeping, I was walking
To the rhythm of the falling rain
Too much water, to cross over
All the bridges falling down

You sing me songs
With overtures
From strange exotic places
Words I've never known

Wait 'til the morning
Don't send me back
Don't send me back across the rainbow
No return to where I've been

You were reaching, I was taken
To the river in the light of dawn
Too much water, to cross over
All the bridges falling down

Falling down
Come lie beside me
Lie beside me now
Beneath the waves
Beauty surrounds us
