

Brandy Wine

Belvedere

Finally I see your plan and
Now I've come to understand
You shoulda have told me I'd be 32
And that was all so long ago,
Maybe about a week or so
If 34 you're holding only knew

Fall back start over,
Let all the negativity subside
Bad night hung over
And everything you said
Hanging on me
Hanging on me
I can't replace the thought of you,
Sitting there just like you do and
Now you're sitting close
With someone else,
I figured out some time ago
Regardless of the things I know,
I'm over it as far as I can tell

Fall back start over,
Let all the negativity subside
Bad night hang over
And everything you said hanging on me
Had your chance,
Your time has passed
This time I'm not so blinded
