Listen mister brother sister family and friend I fear with each day pass our time grows closer to the end listen stranger passer by and those I never knew there's not one day that you are living has been promised to you

I am a God fearing man
I'm a God fearing man
I reach out for my God's hand
I'm a God fearing man

listen mother sister brother relatives and kin you want to know just where you're going you got to know where you've been tell me what gives one the right to say their God is better than anybody else don't we all have a right to find God for our self

I am a God fearing man
I'm a God fearing man
I reach up for my God's hand
I'm a God fearing man

when I rise with the morning sun I give thanks to my God for the gift of another one and when my day is over and complete

I reach to my God
to put me back on my feet

I am a God fearing man
I'm a God fearing man
I reach up for my God's hand
I'm a God fearing man
