

Girl

Ben Kenney

hey ma i got a girl
we got it made she's everything in my world dont fret, i'll be home soon i packed a bag and soon i'll be close to you it means so much to me that she's in love with me this girl she grew up strong she takes no shit and knows what's right and what's wrong sometimes i close my eyes and picture her beneath the blue and white sky we don't need anyone just the two of us and all that we have become
they wouldn't understand a single thing that we've done she's gonna be my girl all night be my girl every day
you know i'll have it bad
if the girl i got becomes the girl that i had
becomes the girl i once had
