

A Last Farewell

Beseech

My last second an angel came
Time has come to say goodbye
A coldness began to creep inside
We must leave before the night
Tears started to fall like autumn leaves
Now it's time to go

A last farewell this day
When the angel came for me

Where your soul should belong
What if it's not the world I dreamt of
There is no way back
I'm afraid of what will come
Now you'll face your sins

A last farewell this day
