

Tyrant of Hells Land

Bestial Mockery

Across the blackened sky
With lightening as their pride
Thunder claps from hooves of might
Apocalyptic Riders are in sight

Upon clouds of Death they ride
Pitch-black steeds side by side
Hooded Horsemen omen of Doom
Wielding scythe bring forth the Gloom

Armageddon drawing close
Evil win and mortals loose
Time to fight and time to die
To make a stand for the glory of the Damned

Lightening strikes and earth it quakes
Clashing fight and body aches
Wield the Banner - Flag of Hate
Fight for Satan - Hell awaits

See the Magus cast their spells
They unleash this force from Hell
See the Demons breaking free
It is you against me

Armageddon now is here
Satan take what mortals fear
Time to fight and time to die
Time to make a stand for the Tyrant of Hells land
