

Life Will Be The Same

Betchadupa

So bang the drum all night
You left your soul beside
Don't let them in
Don't let your feelings shine
It'll be alright, alright
And i try too hard
And i try too hard
Pray to your shrine all night
You left your shoes beside Don't breathe it in
The thought is in disguise
It'll be alright, alright
And i try too hard
And i try too hard
Life will be the same
I'm sure you're on your own
And i try too hard
Life will be the same
I'm sure of who you are
And i try too hard
Life will be the same
I'm sure you're on your own
And i try too hard
Life will be the same
Im sure of who you are
And i try too hard
Life will be the same
Im sure you're on your own
And i try too hard
Ahhhhhhh
