

So Close

Better Off

These dreams, they leave me breathless.
Longing for something new, longing to be together with you.
You leave, you leave me hopeless.
Waiting for the day, waiting for you to just walk away.

There's something missing in my heart.
Let's take this from a brand new day, let's take this from a br and new start.

So close to something,
and no, not for nothing.
Will I let this drop?
Will I ever stop for you?
