

Falling Apart

Better Than Ezra

Well, I've been looking in your eyes
And you've been looking in my eyes
Well, there's a reason you came to this tonight
There's a reason you came to this tonight

Can you tell me?
Can you tell me why things are falling apart?
There's a reason, there's a reason

Can you tell me?
Can you tell me why things are falling apart?
There's a reason, there's a reason

All the fish in the ocean
To all the birds in the sky
To all the hearts that are broken
Well there's a reason you came to this tonight

Can you tell me?
Can you tell me why things are falling apart?
There's a reason, there's a reason

Can you tell me?
Can you tell me why things are falling apart?
There's a reason, there's a reason

But this world is not our own
Though we thought that it could be
Yes this world is not my own
Though I wish that it could be

Can you tell me?
Can you tell me why things are falling apart?
There's a reason, there's a reason

Can you tell me?
Can you tell me why things are falling apart?
There's a reason, there's a reason
