Falling Apart

Better Than Ezra

Well, I?ve been looking in your eyes And you?ve been looking in my eyes Well, there?s a reason you came to this tonight There?s a reason you came to this tonight

Can you tell me? Can you tell me why things are falling apart? There?s a reason, there?s a reason

Can you tell me? Can you tell me why things are falling apart? There?s a reason, there?s a reason

All the fish in the ocean To all the birds in the sky To all the hearts that are broken Well there?s a reason you came to this tonight

Can you tell me? Can you tell me why things are falling apart? There?s a reason, there?s a reason

Can you tell me? Can you tell me why things are falling apart? There?s a reason, there?s a reason

But this world is not our own Though we thought that it could be Yes this world is not my own Though I wish that it could be

Can you tell me? Can you tell me why things are falling apart? There?s a reason, there?s a reason

Can you tell me? Can you tell me why things are falling apart? There?s a reason, there?s a reason
