Sincerely, Me

Better Than Ezra

I can still recall The way you looked that fall In your favorite dress The day before you left And since that time I wrote a simple rhyme

And I miss you and the things you do The time we had, the good and bad The day we met that I can't forget Signed Sincerely, Me

Are you cross at your loss? But could you be more obsessive If I'd given you the chance But since you asked, a reply but it's the last

And I miss you and the things you do The love you fake, the heart you break. The buzz you caught, and the times we fought Signed Sincerely, Me. Oh, my God, and don't forget P.S. I moved away to a new address It's far away and I think it's best Signed Sincerely, Me.

Why can't it be like it was? The rain falls, the summer ends. Why can't it be like it was? You always said you'd never go away.

And I confess, I was such a mess I drove for fifteen hours On this nasty Greyhound bus Yes, I've returned. (You'd think that I would have learned.)

But I miss you and the things you do The times we had, the good and bad The day we met that I can't forget Signed Sincerely, Me

Could you really be a bitch like that? Broke my door when you stole the cat. Someone said that you even laughed Signed Sincerely, Me

Why can't it be like it was? The rain falls, the summer ends. Why can't it be like it was? You always said you'd never go away.

And I miss you...

The hope you give. The life you live. The cross you bear. The way you swear. The face you make When you masturbate. Our bed in the moonlight. And the night we fought You were so distraught. And the lies I denied Even when you cried, God knows I apologize, Signed Sincerely, Me.

Why can't it be like it was? The rain goes, the sun returns. Why can't it be like it was? You always said you'd never go away. You'd never go away. You'd never go away.

Signed Sincerely, Me.
