

Amen Amen

Beware of Darkness

Sometimes I stand on the pier at night
And I wonder how everything is gonna be alright.
It's so dark, you can't tell the sky from the water,
That if I fell, I do believe I'd never ever hit bottom.

If you believe in me, I can do anything, it's true.
If you believe in me, I can do anything with you.

Sometimes I forget, that I'm alive,
Until I feel your hand, pulse in mine.
Your raspberry lips,
They breathe color, color into me.

Like reds, and blues, and purple, yellow too, and violet, and silver, and turquoise too.

If you believe in me, I can do anything, it's true.
If you believe in me, I can do anything with you.

So Elly, Elly, don't you go now...

Sometimes, when I wake up
And watch you put on make up,
I forget, that one day you're gonna die.

Cos to me you are forever and everything... To me...

Oh, Elly you disappeared, come back into my life...

If you believe in me, I can do anything, it's true.
If you believe in me, I can do anything for you.
