Red Sails In The Sunset

Big Joe Turner

Red sails in the sunset
Way out on the sea
Please carry my loved one
Home safely to me

He sailed at the dawning
All day I've been blue
Red sails in the sunset
I'm trusting in you

Swift wings you must borrow
Make straight for the shore
We marry tomorrow
Then she goes sailing no more

Red sails in the sunset
Way out on the sea
Please carry my loved one
Home safely to me

Swift wings you must borrow
Make straight for the shore
We marry tomorrow
Then she goes sailing no more

Red sails in the sunset
Way out on the sea
Please carry my loved one
Home safely to me
Please carry my loved one
Home safely to me
