

R4 Intro

Big K.R.I.T.

Yeah, call this movement day the this goes some matter of hand
There's a movement we got going on, not lot of ya may have heard of it
Called the R4, or return or forever and you know, it's not easy to talk about it
You can dig it, but if you just chain you might catch my drill
It's when the lights get dim and the people get quiet
While waiting on change
People standing in line for hours at a time
Good to see you you hit the stage
You got a feeling that you never really felt before
Deep down it ain't good, that's when the dj hit the replay in the tray
Just to make it turn it up
Now the crowd starts I know it's right behind
If your motor's so weak too many ticket for the dead you might as sure of died
So they so they rush backstage like you gotta go on, you gotta go right now
And you pass your dranks to the broad with the like baby girl hold it time
In the hand you a mike that's all you need, peekin at the curtain now you see
Wave of people screamin eager, to tell them my story that will set them free
Let them be a new generation of rebels, and that there my friend is how you begin
The returnof4eva.
