

Under The Lighthouse

Big Wreck

Down here under the lighthouse
Upstairs, I see for miles
Keep my name under the white out
Just let me miss you all the while
Now, I sit here with your letter
It's pushin hard on my brain
You think they should shrink it
(Babe) baby, I think that's insane

No, you woulda left me anyway
And I just bow my head
I swear you mighta left me anyway
So I'll leave you instead

When I told you that I'm sorry
Ya told me that I'm full of fear
When the music is just too loud
Well, it's not your voice I hear

Well, you woulda left me anyway
So I just bow my head
I swear you mighta left me anyway
So I'll leave you instead

Be alone
Let me bow my head
Cause I'd rather be alone
Be alone
Be alone
Be alone
Be alone
