Mina Loy (M.O.H.)

The siren calls outside They want to kill us all Innocents, wounded souls Full of rage Nowhere to go Consequences be they may I resolve to never change I so vow to never yield

Can I give my old heart to you?

Cause when this feeling starts That's when I blow it all away

"here, you're born" they'll say "to die afraid, to lie awake"

It's plain the wars have won The days of judgement rise For innocents, wounded souls How could they know? They're burning cold Paranoias be they may I resolve to never change

Can I give my old heart to you?

Cause when this feeling starts That's when I rip it all apart

Alright! The end's in sight We're born to die One thousand times

I'm just one wish away
I'm just one wish away from you kid
I'm just one wish away
I'm just one wish away from you kid
I'm not so innocent
I'm not so innocent now kid

Can I give my old heart to you? My old heart:
