

Wild Horses

Birdy

I'm a dreamer
But it's hard to sleep
When your head's not in it
I've been restless
'Cause you disappeared
And there's something missing
The earth is loose
Under my shoes

There's an angel
And he's shaped like you
And I thought I knew him
There's a window
And it's dark inside
Where the light was in it
This can't be love
If it hurts so much
I need to let go

I will survive and be the one who's stronger
I will not beg you to stay
I will move on and you should know I mean it
Wild horses run in me

I remember
How we danced so close
I would stand on your feet
And the phone calls
That would last all night
They were lifeboats to me
Our fading scars
Just shooting stars
They're here then gone

I will survive and be the one who's stronger
I will not beg you to stay
I will move on and you should know I mean it
Wild horses run in me

Our human hearts forget how strong they are
And they get lost along the way
It's not giving up, it's letting go
And moving to a better place

I will survive and be the one who's stronger
I will not beg you to stay
I will move on and you should know I mean it
Wild horses run in me

I will survive and be the one who's stronger
I will not beg you to stay
I will move on and you should know I mean it
