

Someday

Black Eyed Peas

Someday

I'm gonna get it right, my life

Someday

I'm gonna figure it out, maybe tonight

'Cause I know I'm a get it right

And I know I'm a get it right

Someday, one day

Someday, one day

I'm bout to get it, bout to get, get, get it

Can't do With little cause I'm big, big Willy

I'm bout to do it just like Bill Gates did it

Cause I was born, I was born to kill it

Gimme me more dollars, gi-gimme me more dollars

I need it bigger, I'm too big for smaller

I keep on walking like I'm blue collar

I'm bout to get it, baby, inshallah [Arabic for "If God would like"]

Someday

I'm gonna get it right, my life

Someday

I'm gonna figure it out, maybe tonight

'Cause I know I'm a get it right

And I know I'm a get it right

Someday, one day

Someday, one day

Breath, just breath

Now breath...

Drop it

I came here from the Philippines

In the plane with some big, big dreams

I left everything I knew behind me

Like my mom and my family

People tell me that I ain't gonna make it

I got a finger aimed at all of them haters

In a minute you're gon' catch the vapors

Cause in a minute I'm a get my paper

Someday

I'm gonna get it right, my life

Someday

I'm gonna figure it out, maybe tonight

'Cause I know I'm a get it right

And I know I'm a get it right

Someday, one day

Someday, one day

Someday you're wondering if you're really gonna make it

Sometimes you wanna know if there's anyone to save ya

I know you've been down before, like underneath the ground

Still got a little chance to turn it all around

Soon your time will come, so give it all you got

Don't stop believing, so give it all you got

Got, got, got, got...
