

1. I was looking for a lover
Living underneath the sun
I thought I was the other
When I knew I was the one

R: Caught a handle on the rising sun
Took a day to rise and fall
At the end of the trail I was scarred and burned
But I felt no pain at all

2. Walking through a world of lies
With a heart made out of stone
I looked deep into my eyes
And I knew I was alone

R: Caught a handle...

3. I'm a son of a son
I'm the son of the sun
My death trip
Has just begun

R: Caught a handle...

4. I was looking for a lover
Living underneath the sun
I thought I was the other
When I knew I was the one

R: Caught a handle...
