

Am I Only

Black Rebel Motorcycle Club

Nothing seems to show
The feelings come and go
And everything's so strange
The people never change

Am I only, only one of you
Am I only, only one of you

Emotions never known
They talk though what you show
So easy you let go
What's left is torn and thrown

Am I only, only one of you
Am I only, only one of you

You turn into a song
And everything feels wrong
There's so much more to see
But lost is meant to be

Am I only, only one of you
Am I the lonely, only one of you

Am I the only lonely one of you
Am I the only lonely one of you
Am I the only lonely one of you
Am I the only lonely one of you
