

Welcome to Misery

Black Tide

Wake up to a cigarette burning
Hate that smell, hate her guts, I hate everything
This sure ain't the life that I dreamed of
Hey world, do you see me?

Welcome to this place that I call home
Welcome to misery
Welcome to the only thing I've known
Welcome to my misery

I'm so tired of everything breaking
Around me, it's an overwhelming burden
This sure ain't the life I had dreamed of Hey God, where do dreams go?

Welcome to this place that I call home
Welcome to misery
Welcome to the only thing I've known
Welcome to my misery

Can I break free from misery?
Will this ever meet an end?
Can I escape this agony?
Am I forever condemned?

Welcome to this place that I call home
Welcome to my misery

Welcome to this place that I call home
Welcome to misery
Welcome to the only thing I've known
Welcome to my misery

Welcome to this place that I call home
Welcome to misery
