

Stolen Omen

Black Veil Brides

I see you live delusions paint life with our conclusions
I don't know how to tell you
This path has lost its value

We blazed the trail they burn.
A simple lesson learned.
I am the sanctuary.

Hope born in a time thats broken.
I pray to the heroes of the damned
I sing with dark devotion
A song for whats behind our masks
I can't feel false ideals,
Another fool that's blind to what's real.
I sing for the hope thats broken.
They live for a stolen omen.

I see this, I know pain
Let's see you try
Punk

You can't begin fight this hate we've had thrust on us
The enemy of me, an army holds me up
I am your sanctuary

Hope born in a time thats broken
I pray to the heroes of the damned
I sing with dark devotion
A song for whats behind our masks
I can't feel false ideals.
Another fool thats blind to whats real.
I sing for the hope thats broken
They live for a stolen omen

Stand up now and show us
What you live for

Hope borned in a time that's broken
I pray to the heroes of the damned
I sing with dark devotion
A song for what's behind our masks
I can't feel, false ideals
Another fool that's blind to what's real
I sing for the hope that's broken
They live for a stolen omen
