My Gift Silence

If I compiled All my crimes and my lies, Into amnesty, Would you come back to me,

The smile on my lips Is a sign that I don't hear you leaving me, And I don't hear my own soul scream,

I'll read your lips, Watch your scarf play at your hips, And I know its true, But I don't hear him call to you, Don't blame yourself, Don't change yourself, Just want to be over you Save you love, Don't hate yourself,

If I compiled All my crimes and my lies into amnesty, Would you come back to me,

The smile on my lips Is a sign that I don't hear you leaving me, And I don't hear my own soul scream,

Don't blame yourself, Don't change yourself, I just wanna be over, you see, And feel numb. Don't hate yourself.
