Bliss n Eso

Yo, I know a place that you lot can play
It's a party that you can hear like two blocks away
Fuckin' attitude and fuck the right apparel to wear
Fuck driving I rolled up on a barrel of beer
I busted through the door to Bliss N Eso bustin the speakers
It's so packed in here that I'm steppin on sneakers
But this MC corners me he's got my patience spent
'Cause he's wack but thinks he's the shit like David Brent Gave me his Demo to Sus, he Wouldn't let go my nuts
I was like dude I'll be right back just need a bevo to clutch
Yo _ Whats Up
I got the urge to write a sentence
Izm rocked up with 3 Virgin Flight Attendants
When his beer runs out there'll be some trouble and some buggin
So I open the fridge and stashed a couple in the oven.
I'm a sneaky little cunny
But believe me it was funny when I found 2 mingers gettin freaky in the dunn y

There's stolen steaks on the barbie on my balcony bitch

I'm teaching new comers how to shape and make a bong While Bliss hides my beer so we can take 'em later on Plus the color of my _ like the Canberra Raiders
It got me crackin' jokes with Izm playing San Andres
We got the whole block shaking outrageous
Cause a party Ain't a party without waking' your neighbours
Or making arraignments to go break in a basement and to steal another mother fucking case for these cavemen
Kick N Flow's freestylin on some ill shit
If you ain't down with us then you're not on the bill kid
So piss off cause this costs nothing for my brothers
Just a house party full of naughty Mother Fuckers
So bounce, break something, shake the house down
Get on stage and then make the crowd shout
Bounce break something shake the house down
