

In a Furnace

Bloodpit

If I were dead tomorrow would you retain my remains
And if I were dead tomorrow I wouldn't regret anything Would you lay yourself down on our matrix... Together burn with me
When I collapse, tenderly whisper. It's time for me to die

May I die with a smile on my face
May I die with your life in my eyes
May I die with no pain and in love
Close my eyes, it will be fine

In those flames I feel pain no more
Side by side with the one I love
Ashes mixed up under the ground Equally, and there we are

How am I supposed to know if I'm still alive today
We're all gone tomorrow there's nothing you can do
This could be the day. I have everything I own
There is nothing I would change because today I die

May I die with a smile on my face...

In those flames I feel pain no more...
