

In Your Play

Bloodpit

Seems like everything was settled up for me
And I was the guided actor
in your play

You try to explain
But I can't even breathe
And you say I'm insane
Let me be

Crucified hands in sin tell a tale, everything Should I just give up and let it be
We were not meant to unite refrain:

You try to explain
But I can't even breathe
And you say I'm insane
Let me be
You ripped and tore me apart

Bitterness lingers on Memory of our separation
My bitterness lingers on
