

In my time I felt vulnerable,
One lifeless armor and one life to go
The more I held - the more I grew
Worried about losing it all

Life goes on with or without me
One open heart for sale
Life goes on with or without me
I'll let you know when I'm done

Like a drill forced myself through Every pointless issue - each day a new
And when I tried to keep control
I broke the glass - It went up in smoke

It's only life and only life matters
Don't you lose a goodnight sleep
Worrying 'bout the way
Things might be
Now if I cried would I still be a man
Or if I died would you come see me?
Things change in one life time
But here's one thing that will never change
