

The Simple Art Of Making You Mine

Blowsight

This is a journey not for fun
You have to bare with me
Let's hold the clowns for entertainment and the girls for company
And the more you shoot the more i smile
Just let the bullets penetrate
Hold the clowns for entertainment
Dance around like timberlake

The more you shoot the more i smile
But still i'm bleeding.

So free yourself from everyone
Let's turn the party on
The situation is critical
I want us to shine
The night is still young
Let's turn the tv on
I'd like to call this the simple art of making you mine

If i could have a nickel
For everytime i said "NO"
I'd be a millionaire but use the cash on the new nintendo
There was a part of me who loved the way you used to smile
The yesterday is f*cking grey
I'm glad it's been a while.

So what's up with making me
It's making you the enemy
I try to heal but still i'm bleeding.

So free yourself from everyone
Let's turn the party on
The situation is critical

So what do you want?
