

You Are Lyin'

Blue System

You're lying - baby why are you breaking my heart ?
You're crying - baby you're crying
Baby, when i'm tearing apart
You're lying - baby why are you breaking my heart
You're crying - baby when i'm tearing apart

Yes you said but you know on a night like this i'm sitting here alone
Where all those dreams you promised me, my love
I'm so scared of loneliness
And no one carred about what i'm thinking
But i hear you knockin on my door
And nothing hurts forever
And you said i'm lying - you really think that i'm lying to you

You're lying - baby why are you breaking my heart ?
You're crying - baby you're crying
Baby, when i'm tearing apart
Oh, it's raining - oh, it's raining in my heart
And i'm running back to you
Oh, i'm playing - playing just a dirty part
I'll never make you blue

Yes, you said to me that you're jealous
And that i'm fooling around with other girls
But you know, when a love goes wrong nothing goes right
Every night i'm running around and they scandalised my name
And no one carred about what i'm thinking - no one carred about me
But how many times can we say goodbye - one day it's over
And you said i'm lying - you really think that i'm lying to you
