

No Water

Bob Marley & The Wailers

No water can quench my thirst
I'm in bed send me a nurse
I'm thirsty thirsty Lord o' Mercy
Ooh we - what other bottle, sweeter the victory
I've got your love, the power of your glory
Aah, Ooh yeah, trillin me, alright
Can't judge a mother by the skin of the father Can't judge a book by the skin on the cover Read me read me bab y

No water can quench my thirst
I'm in bed, need a nurse
Can you understand
Do you understand me baby

I've got a bottle, sweet the victory
I've got your love, the power of your glory
Aah, Ooh we, alright
You've got your love and I've got mine workin together, they work fine
Do you believe me, baby, get it up baby Break it back, turn it loose what in heaven baby it got to choose
