

Crazy For You

Bobby Caldwell

Baby, I haven't said all the words you need to hear
Deep inside can't imagine the life without you near Can't imagine a day without knowing I would see your Face
It must be showing can't you see I'm living for your Love

My love is stronger like the wave in motion
It's shining brighter than the stars above
This is my pledge of the grieving in devotion
Deeper than the ocean
Baby I'm crazy for your love

In my dreams
I was hoping your love would come alone
If it seems that I take you for granted
You're oh so wrong
Wanna live everyday every minute
Here in your embrace
I'm so dependent can't you see
I'm crazy for your love

My love is stronger like the wave in motion
It's shining brighter than the stars above
This is my pledge of the grieving in devotion
Deeper than the ocean
Baby I'm crazy for your love

Every beat of my heart is a bell that brings too
Through it no doubt of my love for you
Every day in your arms will be easy to do
Now and forever
Baby, until the end of time

My love is stronger like the wave in motion
It's shining brighter than the stars above
This is my pledge of the grieving in devotion
Deeper than the ocean
Baby I'm crazy for your love

Crazy it's true 'n my heart beats for you
Nobody but you girl
Yes I'm crazy you see
And I want you here with me babe
Crazy in love but I'm happy to be crazy
