

My Better Half

Bobby McFerrin

I like your eyes they can open up a hole when you're lookin' at romance and you see you see through me but when I'm lookin' in your eyes my mind begins to dream of love so deep
the kind that the kind that makes you weep you know that I will try to win your love cause I'm convinced you're my better half

I like your lips they can tenderly explore the secret places of romance and when, and when you speak I can hear the angels up above me begin to sing
the kind that makes me shiver the kind that looks _____
you know that I
will try to win your love cause I'm convinced that you are my b etter half

I like your sweet caress and when you hold me in your arms I love's tenderness with your touch, your touch I feel a tremor in my body and it brings me to my knees to a love so deep the kind that Romeo and Juliet could not achieve
