

Yes, You

Bobby McFerrin

I don't know what to do ain't no words comin through can't seem to think when I'm looking at you when I'm thinking of the words to say all I think of are two

yes, you

when I'm all alone
my heart's like a stone but you give me the strength when I'm on my own I start thinking of some words to say there's only two that I know

yes, you

I'm on bended knee and my heart you see you there's no one else who can set me free when I'm thinking of the words to pray there's only two that I need

yes, you
