

Love, The Time Is Now

Bobby Womack

Love, the time is now
I heard somebody say
You had to get better after a while
But I say

Love, the time is now, yeah
Freedom for all
And
So hurry up change
If you ever gonna come

Love, love, the time is right now
Won't you please for me
Yeah

Love, the time is right now
I heard somebody say

It's gonna be alright after a while
There's a cloud over head
And it's so dark and
Let my people go
Can't you see it's time and we're here
Love, love, love

The time is now
I don't wanna leave you but I got to go
Yeah
You've got the Bless
We're all sisters and brothers
