Afterlife

Bolt Thrower

Afterlife

As you feel your soul depart from this world Prepare for a journey to regions of the unknown

Your life has now ended You fear the conclusion Cast into the dark realms Destined to the afterlife

As terror grips your soul Direction is uncertain Fear clouds your mind Ignorance your burden

Afterlife

Within the dominion of the lifeless, you plead to die in peace Now despair for total forgiveness, imprisoned in this land

All is silent Held within Existing forever New life begins Eternal desolation Your soul to give

Enslaved for all existence - Perpetual endless torment Reality is now dormant - Within the afterlife
