

I'm Not Alright

Bones Brigade

Fuck you for asking but I'm not alright.
Are you doing this for a reason or is it just out of spite?
Spare me your bullshit, don't pretend that you care.
Because you know that I'm not alright.

Every time I see you it tears me apart.
Each word you bleed like a knife in my heart.
Stop bothering me, I don't have the strength to fight.
Can't you see that I'm not alright.

"I don't even care about self-destruction anymore...
What's the use?" (black flag).

I can't even stand the sound of your name.
I'm falling apart because of your games.
I want to die, now I might.
Don't you get it? I'm not alright.
