White eyes in coal mines, concrete industry, bare backs, baseball caps | The sweat is part of life we're still thriving | We've got alot of mouths to feed and we're trying | You think I do this for me to join the caste | Flip through old photographs of our family's past | Building your home, giving you life, our livelyhood | Creators | It's always been like this | People you never see the ones you'll never be | Working with their hands We've downsized again | All through history building piece by piece | It's not for you to erase with your algebra and your science | Simple labor