

I Asked For Love

Boy George

There might be a question
That you ask before too long
I won't have the answer
But I promise to be stronger
You lied to me
You lied to me
Like I was some fool, yes you did
You lied to me, you cried for me
I told you to keep your cool
I asked for love
But your love has gone
I asked for love
But your love has gone
I asked for love
But your love has gone
I asked for love
And to be strong
To be stronger
There was a time
I felt no shame
In asking please, please me
But your rejection
Brought me to my knees
You lied to me
You lied to me
Like I was some fool, yes you did
You lied to me, but that's history
I told you to keep your cool
All the people
Are ready to hold your hand
All the people
Are ready to understand
The things you do
