

I Specialise In Lonliness

Boy George

When I first met you you had scars much deeper than my own
I know I was weak
But I feel I have grown
In the back of my mind
I know the difference between wrong and right so if you should decide to leave
I won't put up a fight
I specialize in loneliness
In loneliness
I specialize
If you were a diamond
I wouldn't want you now
If you were a pearl
I'd throw you back somehow
I could never love in that superficial way
And I'm much too proud
To ask you if you'll stay
I know these are dangerous times for love
Shouldn't we stick together
I specialize in loneliness
In loneliness I specialize
