

Live Your Life

Boy George

Everybody knew the boy was strange
The raised him in whispers
Oh how they prayed
The demons would go away
His daddy was cruel
He tried to make him tough
Always afraid to give him too much love
Too much love

Running running running
What a waste of time
No-one you can be but your good self
Bigotry & hatred
And too much lies

Now it's time to live your life
Ain't no second chance
You can't rewind, no, no
You can't rewind

Everybody said the boy will change
Many years are gone but the truth remains
The truth remains

Running running running
What a waste of time
No-one you can be but your good self
Bigotry & hatred
And too much lies

Now it's time to live your life
Ain't no second chance
You can't rewind
You can't rewind
