

She's Talking To Someone

BR5-49

It's been such a long time since she's talked to me
Out here in this phone booth I'm chilled to my knees
I dial her number and I just can't believe
She's talking to someone, she ain't talking to me

She's talking to someone, she ain't talking to me
And I can't stop crying right here in the street
That signal I'm getting brings a monotone plea
She's talking to someone, she ain't talking to me

I fumble for quarters I'm looking for dimes
I can't even buy her she's busy each time
I slam the receiver and I clench my teeth
She's talking to someone, she ain't talking to me

She's talking to someone, she ain't talking to me
And I can't stop crying right here in the street
That signal I'm getting brings a monotone plea
She's talking to someone, she ain't talking to me
She's talking to someone, she ain't talking to me
