

You're not going anywhere

Brad Sucks

Drunk and losing ground
Broken up and down
The only way I've found
To shake your body free

I've got what it takes
To help you make mistakes
To put you through a phase
That's harder than it seems

I'm not saying anything
You haven't heard before
No one's gonna wait for you
To wake up anymore
Changing all your scenery
Saying you don't care
But you're not going anywhere
Yeah

Spending all your days
Frozen in your place
Rearrange your face
To ways you better be

Having not enough
You'll never measure up
The alcohol and drugs
Are better off in me
