

Obliteration Untold

Brain Drill

thrown into a void of perpetual darkness outlasting the ideals of a futile existence absent of all technological advancements the earth envelopes into a casket unimagined calamity of epic proportions no turning back now, blistering destruction ecliptic darkness begins covering the nations unveiling the chaotic transition of global decimation no escape for the human race, sparing not a single soul fated to misfortune in our final days seeking no shelter from constant cosmic rays
no escape for the human race, sparing not a single soul
skin begins to melt and tear disfiguring mutation of bubbling decay
obliteration untold
abandon hope
fated to misfortune in our final days
seeking no shelter from constant cosmic rays abandon all hope
obliteration untold
