Before it Breaks

Brandi Carlile

Around here, it's the hardest time of year Waking up, the days are even gone The collar of my coat, Lord help me, cannot help the cold The rain drops sting my eyes, I keep them closed

But I'm feelin' no pain I'm a little lonely and my quietest friend Have I the moonlight? Have I let you in?

Say it ain't so, say I'm happy again Say it's over, say I'm dreaming Say I'm better than you left me Say you're sorry, I can take it

Say you'll wait, say you won't Say you love me, say you don't I can make my own mistakes Let it bend before it breaks

I'm alright, don't I seem to be? Aren't I swinging on the stars? Don't I wear them on my sleeve? Went looking for a crossroads, it happens every day And whichever way you turn, I'm gonna turn the other way

Say it's over, say I'm dreaming Say I'm better than you left me Say you're sorry, I can take it

Say you'll wait, say you won't Say you love me, say you don't I can make my own mistakes Learn to let it bend before it breaks

Say it's over, say I'm dreaming Say I'm better than you left me Say you're sorry, I can take it

Say you'll wait, say you won't Say you love me, say you don't I can make my own mistakes Let it bend before it breaks
