

If I Told You It Was The End Of The World

Bride

God's truth doesn't leave me dry
I put it right in your face
You push it away for concept
Then gather what remains

If I told you it was the end of the world
Would you change your ways?
If I told you it was the end of the world
Would you change your ways?

When the sun is gone the day is done
You're pasted in a book of despondency
Hopelessness digests your will to live
Within your mind of despair

If I told you it was the end of the world
Would you change your ways?
If I told you it was the end of the world
Would you change your ways?

Where do you think you're going now?
Spinning on this little ball
If this footstool is your heaven
Better hope this rock don't fall

God's truth doesn't leave me dry

If I told you it was the end of the world
Would you change your ways?
If I told you it was the end of the world
Would you change your ways?
